

I am writing to whom it may concern that I am NOT in favor of relaxing the FCC laws that would enable the major corporations to have virtually complete control over all forms of media. I think it is an outrage and extremely dangerous for the American people. I think that giving this kind of power to monopolize is unlawful and should not be allowed.

Sincerely,
Jessica Porter.